09 v.)
10 JACQUELINE LOUISE COLLINS-) SUMMARY REPORT OF U.S.
KOSLOSKY,) MAGISTRATE JUDGE AS TO 11 Defendant.) ALLEGED VIOLATIONS
12) OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

14 An initial hearing on a petition for violation of supervised release was held before the 15 undersigned Magistrate Judge on February 9, 2009. The United States was represented by 16 Assistant United States Attorney Norman Barbosa, and the defendant by Ms. Nancy Tenney.

17 The defendant had been charged and convicted of Conspiracy to transport Minors in 18 Interstate Commerce to Engage in Prostitution and Conspiracy to Commit Money
19 Laundering, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2423(e) and 1956(h), respectively. On or about 20 March 30, 2007, defendant was sentenced in the District of New Jersey by the Honorable
21 Freda L. Wolfson, to a term of fifteen (15) months in custody, to be followed by eight (8)
22 years of supervised release.

23 The conditions of supervised release included the requirements that the defendant
24 comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and with the standard conditions. Special 25 conditions imposed included, but were not limited to, participation in a substance abuse and 26 mental health programs, financial disclosure and home confinement for six months.

01 On May 24, 2007, an Order Accepting Probation Jurisdiction was signed by the 02 Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez. On March 2, 2008, Judge Martinez modified supervised
03 release requiring drug and alcohol aftercare.

04 In a Petition for Warrant or Summons, dated December 10, 2008, U.S. Probation
05 Officer Jennifer J. Tien asserted the following violation by defendant of the conditions of her
06 supervised release:

07 (1) Failing to comply with mental health aftercare since December 3, 2008, in
08 violation of the special condition of supervised release.

09 The defendant was advised of her rights, acknowledged those rights, and admitted to 10 the alleged violation.

11 I therefore recommend that the Court find the defendant to have violated the terms
12 and conditions of her supervised release as to violation number 1, and that the Court conduct
13 a hearing limited to disposition. A disposition hearing on these violations has been set before
14 the Honorable Richard A. Jones on February 25, 2009 at 9:00 a.m.

15 Pending a final determination by the Court, the defendant has been detained.

16 DATED this 9th day of February, 2009.
